

No. 4862 REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE

STATE NATIONAL BANK

At Oklahoma City, in the State of Oklahoma, at the Close of Business June 23, 1915.

RESOURCES:

Loans and discounts (notes held in bank)	$1,151,181.94
Bills of exchange	480,404.46
Total loans	$1,630,585.40
Overdrafts, unsecured	1,701.19
U. S. bonds deposited to secure circulation (par value)	200,000.00
Total U. S. bonds	200,000.00
Bonds, securities pledged as collateral for state or other deposits or bills payable (postal excluded)	114,750.71
Securities other than U. S. bonds (not including stocks) owned unpledged	176,242.94
Total bonds, securities, etc.	291,002.65
Subscription to stock of federal reserve bank	$21,000.00
Less amount unpaid	10,500.00
All other stocks, including premium on same	30,555.32
Banking house, none; furniture and fixtures	$43,615.53
Other real estate owned	10,500.00
Due from federal reserve bank	65,167.60
Due from improved reserve agents in New York, Chicago and St. Louis	157,874.17
Due from banks and bankers other than included in 8 or 9	157,024.76
Checks on banks in the same city or town as reporting bank	1,418.46
Exchanges for clearing house	17,390.43
Outside checks and other cash items	121,642.02
Fractional currency, nickels and cents	637.96
Notes of other national banks	122,279.98
Total cash and certificates	154,255.80
Legal tender notes	58,000.00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (not more than 5 per cent on circulation)	10,000.00
Total	$2,922,120.44

LIABILITIES:

Capital stock paid in	250,000.00
Surplus fund	60,000.00
Undivided profits	52,015.65
Less current expenses and taxes paid	46,057.50
Circulating notes	200,000.00
Due to banks and bankers (other than included in 5 or 6)	438,758.81

SAYS EVELYN WANTS MONEY

Alienist Says Slayer of White Thinks Wife Fears She May Be Cut Off in Will

NEW YORK, June 30.—Dr. Charles K. Mills of Philadelphia, a witness in the jury trial to test the sanity of Harry K. Thaw, testified today that Thaw believed his wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wanted him kept in the Matherman asylum so that as an insane person, he would be unable to make a will cutting her off from his fortune.

The question put by one of Thaw's attorneys was said to have been prompted by a published article quoting Mrs. Thaw as being fearful for the safety of her son if her husband should be released. Mrs. Thaw, who has been served with a subpoena, is expected to reach here tomorrow and testify as a witness for the state next week.

"Thaw told me," Dr. Mills said, "that his wife had motives for wanting to keep him in Matherman. He did not think she had anything against him personally or was apprehensive for her son, but thought she believed that as long as he was in Matherman he could not make a will cutting her off."

Dr. Mills, last of the witnesses to be called for Thaw, was still under examination when recess was taken. The state expects to open its case as soon as Thaw concludes with the introduction of documentary evidence which may occupy two days.

COURT REVERSES SELF

In Old Divorce Case Peculiar Condition Arises Which Moves Supreme Judge to Withdraw Former Opinion

The supreme court of the state has reversed a former opinion handed down by it in one filed today in the district court, in the case of Lura Earl against Beatrice Earl and others. It is one of the most peculiar cases ever taken into court.

Earl obtained a divorce from his wife in this state in 1886, and about the same time his wife obtained a decree of divorce in Dixie county, Missouri. Earl died since the divorce was granted, and his wife brought suit to annul the divorce granted to him in the district court. The supreme court now held that his divorce was legal, but upon reviewing the case has decided that it was fraudulent.

The case was tried before Judge Taylor in the district court and now the supreme court sustains his decision. Property is involved in the suit and the wife who was divorced in Missouri will stand a chance to get her share of it, the highest court in the state having held that Earl's divorce was not legal. It is held that he came here for the purpose of obtaining a divorce and was at that time a resident of Missouri. The judgment of the lower court is affirmed and a re-hearing is denied. The former opinion of the supreme court is withdrawn and the latter one is substituted for it.

E. J. HELM DROPPED

Beheading in Police Department Continues in Order to Reduce Force to Budget Apportionment

Announcement was made at the mayor's office this morning that Motorcycle Officer E. J. Helm would also be dropped from the city's payroll following the program of consolidation and expense cutting at the police station. Lack of funds compelled the cutting of the motor squad from four to three. Pete Blewer, head of the identification bureau, has likewise been dropped, the work of the Bertillon department being done by the regular force.

Sergeants J. W. Berry and Alvin Bradford have also been let go, the Gaineswell board and sergeant's desk to be handled hereafter by Sergeant John Stubblefield and R. F. and T. D. Brandon, who will serve as acting sergeants. The work of all the men has been satisfactory. It is stated, but the amount granted by the budget for the expenses of the police department necessitated the dropping of a certain number of men, with the consolidation of different parts of the department wherever possible. The lack of appropriation means that the police force has been cut down to the very core, with every surplus officer and office eliminated.

WILSON DAY AT FAIR

President at Cornish, Summer Home, Will Press Button Formally Opening Celebration Tomorrow

CORNISH, N. H., June 30.—President Wilson tomorrow will press a button formally opening the Wilson Day celebration at the San Francisco exposition. A telegraph wire has been strung to Harbinenden house.

The president today went to Hanover, N. H., for a round of golf on the Dartmouth college links.

It was stated today President Wilson plans to remain here until the German reply to the second American note on submarine warfare has been received. His first plan was to return July 6.

POLICEMEN, FRONT!

Mayor Is Officially Advised to Advertise for Cops in Some Irish-American Newspaper

"Where, oh, where," asked the mayor this morning of Commissioner Street, "can I get some good policemen?"

The answer is simple," returned the commissioner without hesitation. "Advertise in any Irish newspaper."

Whereupon the mayor snatched himself upon the brow, and retired to his office, the mystery which has been puzzling him sorely completely solved.

HUERTA'S SONS COMING; TAKE SHIP FROM CADIZ

CADIZ, Spain, June 30.—Two sons of General Victoriano Huerta sailed today on a French steamship for New York.

HOUSE OF KERNELSDAVID STARR
JORDAN HERE

Window Trimmer For Scott's Drug Store Exhibits Miniature Building Made of Grains of Corn

Home of Dr. Gots II is the window on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street. The corn house is built by David Starr Jordan, chancellor of Stanford University of California. It is a white house and a picture stands before the goodness of the windows. A man on crutches is standing outside. Temple, a large number of the members of the church and others heard the distinguished educator tell of his experiences in Europe where he recently went to study conditions resulting from the war.

Green toward the windows were the clubs and others heard the distinguished educator tell of his experiences in Europe where he recently went to study conditions resulting from the war.

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Holds Forth This Noon Before Members of Fellowship Club On his Hobby,

"World Peace"

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the Scott drug store, and is one of the striking attractions in the window.

Temple, a large number of the members of the Fellowship Club on his hobby, "World Peace."

Intensely interesting was the talk today on a corn house in the window of the Robert M. Scott drug store, and the window attracted more attention today than anything else on Main street.

The corn house is built by E. C. Ladd, an employee of the